Geschichte | Chronik

Far as it goes back , the tradition of Bratwurstglockle . As the oldest Glöckle the story sees that in Regensburg, which opened in 1130 . The Glöckle in Nuremberg Chronicle mentions the city for the first time in 1350 and the „Nuremberg Bratwurstglockle „ in Munich opened its doors for the first time in 1893 . In 1986, the Bratwurstglockle opened in Mainz on historic ground . Johann Schöffler v . Gernsheim, assistant Gutenberg printed his first work , today's MCV was founded in this place and that known Schöfflerhofer wheat beer got its name. The over 850 year tradition of the name „ Bratwurstglockle“ is our commitment . So we use only genuine products from Nuremberg, which are freshly prepared - Enjoy with Schöfflerhofer wheat beers or a well drafted Binding Romans Pils, unfiltered natural beer (Glöckle -Bräu).
